PIUS IX.

The Pope who has held his position on the Papal throne longer than any of his predecessors died on the 7th of February in the 86th year of his age and the 32d of his occupancy of the chair of St. Peter. He was born at Sinigagla and his name was Giovanni-Maria Mastai-Ferretti, and was of noble blood. He was at first educated to the profession of arms and entered the Papal Guards, but afterwards sudied theology and entered the priesthood He was elected Pope on the 16th of June, 1 846. He commenced his reign with deeds of charity and liberality. He gave to the Jews in his domain all the privileges of Christian fathers and masters. He paid the Papal debt. And devoted himself to the intellectual and material improvement of the working classes. He created a free press. He caused the marshes on the Tiber to be drained. He made free ports. He became so popular that he could not go into the streets of Rome without receiving ovations. He enforced discipline among his subordinates.

When the state of Europe became disturbed by the progress of liberal principles Piuo Nono fell into a more conservative course. At last he was obliged to flee from Rome in disguise, and lived a while an exile. He returned and resumed his functions at Rome, but soon found himself stripped of all temporal power, and Rome the capital of the new kingdom of Italy.

He was on the whole one of the best of all who have sat on the Papal throne, and it will be difficult to fill this office which exercises such a vast influence on mankind with a man as able and kind as he has been.

There is a sort of retributive justice in the election of Mr. Fishblate, a Democratic Jew, Mayor of this city. When the Democrats got up the gerrymandering bill, under which a city which was Republican by 1,500 majority, was saddled with a Democratic government, the rascality was defended on the ground that the city must be in the control of "our own people." There is consequently now a great deal of squirming and cursing among the faithful. Until the Constitutions made by the Republicans in 1868 a Jew could neither hold office nor even vote in this state. Now, "the stone that was rejected of the builders has become the head of the corner."

Mr. Fishblate's politics is the only thing against him. Though a Democrat, we believe that he has liberality enough to do his duty by all classes of our citizens. We take pleasure in congratulating our Israelitish fellow-citizens, particularly, on the elevation of an Israelite to the chief magistracy of the city. He is the first Jew that has ever been elected to any official position in North Carolina, therefore the honor is more to be appreciated by him.

When that evil is cured it is possible that those occupying seats in the rear of the orchestra may be induced to take their hats off during the play.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A PROMINENT CITIZEN OF BEAUFORT, N. C.—Mr. Isaac Ramsey died very suddenly at his residence in Beaufort, N. C., on Wednesday last, so his son-in-law, Rev. E. A. Yates, was informed by telegraph. Mr. Ramsey was one of the leading citizens of Carteret county, and one of the wealthiest. He was at the time of his death about 80 years of age; notwithstanding his great age he was the most active business man in the town of Beaufort. Being one of the founders of the Atlantic and N. C. Railroad, he served as one of its directors from the time the company organized up to a few months of his death. He was the father of nine children, but they all died before him, except Mrs. Yates, wife of the honored pastor of Front Street M. E. Church of this city.

FINES, FORFEITURES AND PENALTIES.—We learn from official showing that Joseph C. Hill, Justice of the Peace, has collected from fines in petty cases, adjudicated by him during the last eighten months, the sum of $171.48, to the use of the school fund, and has paid the same over the proper officials. We are informed that this amount is nearly equal to that of all the other Justices combined, for the same period. A good showing.

DR. WILSON'S SERMON ON HELL.—The First Presbyterian Church was completely packed on last Sunday evening by an audience gathered to listen to the views of the Pastor upon eternal punishment. The sermon occupied an hour and ten minutes, and its reasonings, not venturing into the regions of philosophical speculation, vindicated the declarations of the Bible, as leaving no shadow of doubt as to the existence of a Hell as well as a Heaven, both being of equal duration, and each equally well defined. All this was enforced with an accuracy of exegetical scholarship, a grace of rhetoric and a fertility of illustration which lifted the speaker upon the most elevated plane of lofty speech. The old Calvanistic fortress seemed to have opened from all its embrasures and ramparts, and to have thundered defiance at the modern heresies which were investing it.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—The Board of Aldermen met at the City Hall on Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock, pursuant to motion made by Alderman Hill at the last meeting, to elect an Alderman and Mayor, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. John Dawson, which had been accepted to take effect last evening.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Alderman Vollers moved to reconsider the acceptance of Mayor Dawson's resignation.

Alderman Hill moved to lay the motion on the table. Lost.

Mayor Dawson asked leave to make a statement in connection with the motion, to the effect that only the demands of his private business affairs had caused him to resign, and that although he regretted very much being compelled so to act he must adhere to his original intention, and would insist on the acceptance of his resignation.

The motion was accordingly withdrawn.

Alderman Myers offered the following resolutions, which were carried unanimously:

WHEREAS, The Executive Chair of the city having been made vacant by the resignation of the Hon. John Dawson,

Resolved, That we, the members of this Board, desire to express our regrets at his leaving us, and to place upon record our high appreciation of his official services and his uniform kindness and courtesy to the members of this Board.

Resolved, That we accept his resignation unwillingly, feeling that we shall miss his counsel and experience in managing the affairs of our debt-burdened city.

Resolved, That these resolutions be placed among the city records, and that the City Clerk present a copy to the retiring Mayor.

Alderman King moved that the Board now proceed to elect an Alderman. Carried.

Alderman Vollers nominated Mr. Chas. H. Robinson; Alderman Foster, Mr. Geo. Chadbourn; Alderman Myers, Mr. Owen Fennell; Alderman Bowden, Mr. W. P. Oldham; Alderman King, Mr. S. H. Fishblate; and Alderman Hill, Mr. Edward Kidder.

The Mayor appointed Aldermen Bowden and Foster tellers, and directed the Board to prepare their ballots.

The first ballot resulting as follows: Robinson 2, Fennell 1, Chadbourn 4, Oldham 2.

No one candidate having received a majority of all the votes cast, the Chair declared there had been no election and instructed the tellers to proceed to another ballot.

The second ballot resulted: Robinson 3, Oldham 1, Fishblate 1, Kidder 4. No election.

Preparations were then made for the third ballot and the following result announced: Fishblate 5, Fennell 1, Robinson 2, Foster 1.

Mr. S. H. Fishblate having received the necessary majority was declared an Alderman of the city of Wilmington.

Mr. Dawson then spoke, briefly reviewing the history of his administration and complimenting the officials under him, and after again thanking the members of the Board for their uniform courtesy, withdrew,

Alderman Foster moved that Alderman Flanner be made temporary Chairman. Carried.

Alderman Vollers and Lowery, on motion of the latter, were appointed a committee to escort the newly elected Alderman to his seat.

The oath of office was then administered to Alderman Fishblate by Justice C. D. Myers and he was qualified.

The Chair announced the election of a Mayor next in order.

Alderman King nominated Alderman Flanner, Alderman Vollers nominated Alderman Bowden, Alderman Lowery nominated Alderman Fishblate, and Alderman Hill nominated Alderman Foster.

Alderman Bowden declined the nomination.

Three ballots were held as follows:

First—Flanner, 3; Fishblate, 1; Foster, 4; Bowden, 2.

Alderman Bowden insisted that his name be withdrawn.

Second—Fishblate, 4; Flanner, 4; Bowden, 2.

Third—Fishblate, 6; Flanner, 3; Bowden, 1.

Alderman Fishblate was declared elected Mayor, and he was sworn in by Justice Myers.

On taking his seat the newly elected Mayor spoke briefly, thanking the gentlemen for the honor conferred.

On motion of Alderman Flanner, the Board then adjourned, subject to the call of the Chair.

A Gentle Hint.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing consmption, hemorrhages, pneumonia, secvere coughs, croup or any disease of the troal or lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you German Syrup is now is now sold in every town and village on this continent. THE WILMINGTON POST.

W. P. CANADAY,
Editor and Proprietor.

WILMINGTON, N. C.,
FRIDAY MORNING, FEB. 15, 1878.

That sweet-scented rascal Whitaker, whom the New Orleans White League placed upon the bench when they knew he was a public thief to the amount of $600,000, is likely to get well ventillated. He is a fair specimen of those New Orleans scoundrels who are persecuting Republicans by the aid of power which came to them through bludgeons, mobs and fraud.

The President has addressed a letter to Attorney General Devens in regard to the conviction of General Anderson, in which he says that the prosecution of the returning board is solely political, not countenanced by the better classes of Democrats in Louisiana, and will meet the disapprobation of the American people. He also intimates that a contingency may arise when the government may interfere, and asks the opinion of the Attorney General on questions relating thereto.

A. H. Stevens has made an address at the reception of Carpenter's large painting of the Declaration of Emancipation by Mr. Lincoln, being read to his Cabinet. In the course of his remarks Mr. Stevens made some very considerate and just observations upon the relations of the colored race to the country. He says that he has indulged in fancies of a grander and nobler future for our country, but before closing he indulged in abont the usual southern cant upon the dangers to the nation as follows:

It may be a delusion, but it is one of which I do not wish to divest my mind while I linger on this stage. Let all parties and all sections do justice to the component elements of our community, everywhere, according to our constitutional power and right. Let harmony and peace prevail. Let sectional strife be done away with, and there is a higher and a grander future for us; but if the embers of the last most lamentable war are left a little additional fuel comes to flame them up again; if the conflict of classes, the conflict of race, that profound ethnological question which we have all got to settle, and the most difficult one ever committed to the consideration of statesmen or philantropists, shall break out and these dangerous elements be again aroused, I greatly fear that the recent troubles and disasters through which we have just passed will prove to be but the shadow, the penumbra of a deeper and more dreadful eclipse which will come upon this continent blighting the highest and best hopes of mankind.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOUTHERN BOURBONS.

We print in another column what purports to be and unquestionably is a correct statement as to the relations of Messrs. John Sherman and others to the Louisiana returning board, and Mr. Sherman's opinion in regard to the whole matter connected therewith.—Mr. Sherman states that Gen. Anderson, one of the returning board, although tried and convicted, was not even indicted, the suit being brought on what was called an "information"; that the Judge who tried him is a public defaulter to the amount of $600,000; that the jury was packed and committed against Anderson before it was sworn in; that Anderson was hurried with indecent haste to prison and excessive bail imposed; and that finally he has been convicted by this corrupt Judge and this perjured jury without any adequate evidence, and by witnesses who were perjured. To these declarations of Mr. Sherman is appended the dispatch sent on Feb. 4, 1878, to Gen. Anderson, after his conviction, and signed by Mr. Sherman, Stanley Matthews, Gen. Garfield, Eugene Hale, of Maine, and Harry White.

This bold arraignment by Mr. Sherman, while it is a scorching one as relates to the case in hand, serves to reintroduce to the public mind the atrocious enormities and crimes which have accompanied step by step the restoration to power of the Democrats of the southern states. Commencing in Tennessee and North Carolina by the ku-klux villainies, followed by the most despicable legislation, coming down through the herd of midnight assassins and rifle clubs, to the infamous legislatures, the corrupt courts with their perjured juries of later times, there is one great, turbid, filthy stream of lies, rascalities, perjured courts, suborned witnesses, and crimes such as the civilized world has never before seen. The late trials in South Carolina were simply infamous. Four or five late officials were arraigned before a court which did not hesitate at any extra-judicial subterfuge, and convicted on the testimony of witnesses whom the court knew were swearing to falsehoods. The Louisiana proceedings are even worse than those of South Carolina. Gen. Anderson was convicted before he was arraigned, and by jurors who had made public proclamation of their opinions. An intelligent southerner writing from the scene of these enormities states that when Anderson's counsel moved the transfer of the case to the United States Court, where there could be a fair trial, Judge Whitaker refused the motion and set the trial that very evening at 6 o'clock. Why did he do it? Because he knew that the U. S. Judge, [Woods] was absent on his circuit and could not be reached until the next Monday, and if the case was once commenced it could not be interrupted, and Anderson would be obliged to submit to a verdict from the villains who had already decided to convict him. And in the meantime this gentleman also states that so intense was the feeling of the mob on the outside that the Judge and jury both feared mob law unless they proceeded with the trial.

And this is that "pacification" of which we have heard. This is that superior justice which is to be meted out under the new southern regime. Let the rebuking voice of the nation be heard, and a storm of indignant reprobation arise so high as to consign these proceedings to eternal infamy. And let it be known now and at once whether the rights of the southern Republicans are to be protected by the national government.

THE WESTERN JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

The Spirit of the South in rather a rollicking style thus alludes to the controversy going on in our Western Judicial District. Our member, Mr. Waddell, has introduced a bill to abolish the District, as the most convenient way to get rid of Judge Dick and Marshal Douglas. The Spirit says:

The main object of Mr. Waddell's bill, it we understand it, being to dispose of Dick. There are two reasons why we wish the court continued: first, because we look upon it as a great convenience to the people of the west, and secondly because it occasions the annual expenditure in our state of a considerable sum of money out of the national treasury which otherwise would go to enrich some other section of the Union. In a word, we want as many Federal officials in the state as the exigencies of the public service demand, and we want them paid good salaries, which we would have them spend among us; we want all the rivers and harbors of our state improved at the national expense; we want every needed Federal court house and postoffice in our borders constructed without delay—our object being to secure for our impoverished commonwealth all the patronage of the General Government that it is possible for us to obtain.

We have never felt very much disposition to put our finger into the wrangle in that District. But we do say that if there ever was a judicious piece of legislation it was the creation of our Western District. Before its creation clients living in the transmontane region were obliged to go either to Raleigh or to come to this city to attend the U. S. Court. They were subjected to an enormous expense and waste of time. So much are those people accommodated by having a court at Greensboro, Statesville and Asheville that they will not willingly see it abolished. We see no indication that any one of the western members of Congress supports Mr. Waddell's bill, and for the very good reason that the western people without distinction of party are opposed to it. How Mr. Waddell was induced to put himself into the vicarious attitude of doing what neither Gen. Vance, Gen. Scales, Colonel Steele or Mr. Robbins did not venture to do, is more than we have been able to understand.

MORE ABOUT THE METROPOLIS.

The investigation of the Treasury Department into the history of the Metropolis has developed the fact that she was unseaworthy.

"Capt. Merrimon, of the Life-saving Service, who has just returned from the scene of the wreck, says the forward and aft sections of the ship were so rotten that they were all broken to pieces, while the planking of the middle section, which was comparatively new was washed ashore in good condition. The lumber which formed part of the cargo also came ashore in good condition. Capt. Merriman brought several pieces of the wreck to show the condition of the timbers. These, he says, are as rotten as punk."

Mr. William Harrison has telegraphed to Gen. Myers, Chief of the Signal Service, as follows:

Up to this morning I have taken up 50 bodies. The only things I have been able to recover on the bodies up to this time are a pocket-knife and a bunch of keys on one, a pass-book and brass handled knife on another, and a pair of spectacles. The bodies without any exception have been robbed of all things whereby I could possibly identify them. I am satisfied from all that I can learn that the robbery was done in many cases by some of the survivors, and in other cases it was done by the lower class of whites and the negroes from the mainland, who seemed to think that they had a perfect right to take any thing and everything they could lay their hands to. The fact is, they not only robbed the dead by night but also in open daylight. I have found some of the best men on this beach that I have ever met in my life, among whom I must mention Thomas J. Poyner, Joseph Baum, N. E. K. Jones, John Dunton, and Capt. Brock, all of whom have rendered me all the aid in their power, and were the men who helped to save the lives of many of the men, in fact, took clothing off their backs and gave it to the survivors to make them comfortable.

War is the fruitful parent of crimes. It reverses all the rules of morality. It is nothing less than a temporary repeal of the principles of virtue. It is a system out of which almost all the virtues are excluded, and in which nearly all the vices are included. The morality of peaceful times is directly opposite to the maxims of war. The fundamental rule of the first is to do good; of the latter to inflict injuries.—Robert Hall.

MARSHAL FITZSIMMONS.

Mr. Hayes stated to Senator Edmunds that his reason for appointing Fitzsimmons, a Democrat, Marshal of Georgia was that a Democrat could more efficiently administer the law than a Republican. It appears that "my policy" in this matter is not a success. The Atlanta Republican shows that the new Marshal has as much trouble as the late Marshal had and closes with the following comments:—

Criminals are no respecters of persons. It makes no difference to them whether they are arrested by Democrats or Republicans. The "moonshiners" care no more for a Democratic Marshal than for a Republican, for Mr. Fitzsimmons than for Maj. Smythe.—Our Democratic Marshal had not been in office one month before his deputies had a "bloody rencountre," and they were "natives" not "aliens;" Democrats, not Republicans. If our Democratic Marshal was appointed with the expectation that he could enforce the law with less trouble than a Republican, he must be pronounced a failure. The simple truth, however, is that Mr. Fitzsimmons, who is a pleasant gentleman, has done and can do no better than a Republican would have done. The Republican party has been weakened; the Democratic party strengthened, and the service in no way improved.

THE CHISOLM TRIALS.—Mrs. Chisolm has gone to Jackson, Mississippi, as a witness in cases against the Gulleys in the U. S. Court for conspiracy to defeat the operation of the laws of the United States at the general election in 1876, when Judge Chisolm was a candidate for Congress and was defeated by the "shot-gun" policy. The ringleaders were indicted under the civil rights act upon complaint made by Judge Chisolm and Mr. Gilmer, who was pursued with deadly malevolence, and these indictments were the moving cause for the inhuman and cowardly tragedy perpetrated by the Gulleys and others in Kemper county, parties whom Judge Chisolm had been instrumental in having indicted in the United States courts, the purpose being to remove all the principal witnesses to the conspiracy.

The present trials are of national interest and importance. They are the first trials for conspiracy to deprive one class of citizens of their rights that have taken place in the south since the inauguration of the "Mississippi plan," and their issue will determine whether Republicans in that section may be disfranchised with impunity and brutally murdered, with the connivance of state officials, for attempting, under the laws to obtain redress and protection.

SECRETARY SHERMAN

His Statement as to the Facts in the Cases of the Louisiana Returning Board—Indignant Denunciation of the Court Proceedings—The Dispatch sent by Himself and Others to Anderson.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.

The following may be regarded as authenticated:

"Mr. Sherman was asked if it was true, as stated in the morning papers, that he, Matthews, Garfield, Hale and White had sent a dispatch to Anderson. He said it was true, and as that fact had been made public he would furnish a copy of the dispatch, and they meant all they said. Mr. Sherman then stated that he regarded the arrest, trial and conviction of Anderson as a great outrage under color of the forms of law. Anderson was not indicted; the grand jury had refused to indict him. The proceeding against him is called an 'information,' and is expressly prohibited in cases of felony by the Constitution of the United States and of most of the states, but is provided for by the law of Louisiana. The 'information' was signed and filed by a man who was an officer of the white league, identified with all the numerous crimes of that organization. The Judge who tried the case is a public defaulter for over $600,000. When Anderson was arrested he was the acting collector of the port of New Orleans, and the arrest was made while he was in the discharge of his duty at the custom house, which stands, as Mr. Sherman thinks, on ground under the sole jurisdiction of the United States by cession from Louisiana. He was hurried to prison, required to give excessive bail, and failing to do so, was kept in custody, denied all postponement, forced to trial, convicted, and is now held for sentence without benefit of bail. The jury was packed to convict, the panel had been carefully selected, and almost exclusively of one political party and one race. Their examination, as called, showed the deepest and strongest prejudice against the defendant, and in any tribunal he (Mr. Sherman) knew nearly every one would have been rejected on his oath, and yet though challenged they were sworn in. With such a jury I am prepared to believe the story telegraphed this morning, that the two colored jurors were tricked into agreeing to this verdict by an empty appeal to the mercy of the court. The cause of this excitement against Anderson and his associates is, that in the performance of a public duty, in plain pursuance of law, and upon ample testimony, they eliminated from the election returns in Louisiana, the result of violence and intimidation. Though this was not alleged in the 'information,' yet everybody knew that this was the gravamen of their offence, and without it no man man on this jury would have convicted Anderson. It is this that excited this populace, heated with passion to the highest state of resentment. The pretense set up for the prosecution was that Anderson had participated in a forgery or alteration of the Vernon Parish returns, but there was not one particle of evidence to connect him with this act. The whole had been thoroughly examined here by the committees of Congress, and all the records and returns had been spread before them, and even Littlefield, who made the alteration, had exculpated Anderson from knowledge of it. The truth is, the Vernon returns were opened by the Returning Board, before hosts of witnesses, on the ninth day of the examination, were printed precisely as they were in the daily papers and in both Houses of Congress, and the subsequent alteration by Littlefield of one copy of the returns, was done either as a put up job by him, or in the interest of local candidates, having no effect upon the general result, and there does not appear to be a single scrap of testimony showing that Anderson participated in it in the slightest degree.—There was no motive for such an alteration by Anderson; the true return being printed in so many forms it was absurd to think he would alter it, and yet upon this false report he was convicted. I still hope this conviction will not be carried into execution; but if it is, as a matter of course the deepest feeling of resentment and hostility will exist in the minds of the great mass of our people, who believe that these returning officers did but their simple duty. Nothing has been done here, pending the trial, to interfere in any way with the course of judicial proceedings, but if Anderson is imprisoned under this sentence it will be a mockery of public justice and will bring into contempt all efforts at peace and conciliation. It is an unlooked for and terrible commentary upon the efforts of the President to quiet the turbulence and violence of Louisiana politics, and seems to me an act of folly and madness."

The dispatch to Gen. Anderson is as follows:

Washington, Feb. 4, 1878—Colonel Thomas C. Anderson, New Orleans, La.: The undersigned feel it due to you, under present circumstances, to assure you of our unhesitating belief that in the matter wherein you stand charged you are altogether guiltless of any offense against law; that you are falsely accused and maliciously persecuted that the proceeding against you, though in the form of law, is without the substance of justice; that we hereby tender our earnest sympathies, and express our hope that the sense of justice and love of peace of the people of Louisiana will protect you, and not permit the interests of the whole country to be disturbed by a revival of sectional animosities. In any event we are confident that the American people will redress any injustice of which you may be made the victim.

(Signed), John Sherman, Stanley Matthews, J. A. Garfield, Eugene Hale, Harry White.

Our Daughters.

The Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby gives, in Sunday afternoon, advice to mothers about the training of their daughters. He says that the idea of uselessness as a faishionable necessity for a young woman is wrong. "The boys, after leaving school or college, naturally gravitate to commerce, law, medicine, science, or divinity; but the girls at like period begin to play the fine lady, spending their day in pretty idleness. The only question that seems to be asked is, 'how can I best amuse myself?'" Dr. Crosby's remedy for this evil is regular daily tasks for girls, either of household or charaitable work, or of self improvement. He thinks that young women trained in that way are more likely to get good husbands than those who devote themselves to folly. He adds: "Perhaps you have a notion that if your daughter is out of 'society' she might as well be in Sahara or Kamschatka, and you have brought yourself to believe that the only 'society' on earth is that which is distinguished by white kid gloves and 'germans.' Did you ever soberly think of the possibility of life outside of the charmed circle? It is humbly believed by some men and women, both old and young, who have had brains and hearts, have managed to enjoy life without initiation into the mysteries of fashion. Some have even dared to think that true refinement is best cultivated in a less artificial atmosphere."

Fatal Dental Operation.

Coroner James Dempsey, of New Brighton, Staten Island, was called upon to hold an inquest upon the body of Sara Wilson, a young girl twenty-one years of age and domestic in the family of Mr. Thomas Sequine, at Annandale, who died suddenly yesterday morning from an overdose of chloroform. It appears that the girl suffered from decaying teeth, and sent for Dr. Harvey, who discovered that six teeth had to be extracted. He administered a dose of chloroform to the patient and when three of the teeth were extracted he considered it necessary to administer another dose. Four minutes after the extraction of the last tooth the girl had ceased to live. Much excitement was created, and at the inquest yesterday the quiet neighborhood was crowded with curious people. The jury rendered a verdict of "death by an overdose of chloroform."—N. Y. Herald.

Glasgow is the most druken place in the world, and by no means the most moral in any other respect, but the people are such intensely conscientious observers of the Sabbath that, on the occasion of the Prince Wales recent visit to the Duke of Hamilton, the Glasgow Workingmen's Protestant Association memorialized the Prince of Wales, praying him not to arriye at Hamilton on Sundays, "so that a violation of the Lord's Day might be avoided, and that the excellent example of his illlustrious and regretted father would be followed by him."

OLD,

AND TRUE.

People are getting acquainted—and those who are not ought to be—with the wonderful merits of that great American Remedy, the
MEXICAN
Mustang Liniment,
FOR MAN AND BEAST.

This liniment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for 35 years, until now it encircles the habitable globe.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a matchless remedy for all external ailments of man and beast.

To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable.

A single bottle often saves a human life or restores the usefulness of an excellent horse, ox, cow, or sheep.

It cures foot-rot, hoof-ail, hollow horn, grub, screw-worm, shoulder-rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and bush life.

It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, swinny, sprains, founder, wind-gall, ring-bone, etc., etc.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure. Particularly valuable to Miners.

It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure.

Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.

THE WILMINGTON POST,

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

FRIDAY MORNING FEB. 15, 1878.

ALL SORTS.

It is proposed by Congress to restore the income tax. It is our opinion that those who have the money ought to pay the taxes in proportion as they have it.

According to Colonel Pat Donan, Governor Wade Hampton addressed the handsome widow of Gov. Pickens, of South Carolina, at the Greenbrier White Sulphur, during the last summer, and received a beautifully embroidered mitten big enough to sack a ham.

The bill agreed upon by the House committee on Pacific Railroads for the benefit of the Northern Pacific Railroads extends the time of its completion to ten years, and reduces the land grant in Washington Territory, taking away such portion of land as was heretofore embraced in the appropriation for the construction of the road from Pead Oreille to Puget Sound.

Much opposition was manifested by a majority of the Cardinals to the interment of Victor Emanuel in the Pantheon. The Pope convoked an especial council on the subject, and found them nearly all strenuously opposed to conceding the permission.—Pius IX. finally exclaimed, "I am still Pope, and I order that the Pantheon shall be used for the interment of the King. I also authorize the clergy to assist at the obsequies."

We have been expecting it all along, and now, sure enough it is officially announced that Brigham Young's estate is to be prosecuted for the recovery of $2,500,000 which was feloniously appriated by the late prophet from the church treasury. Much as the prophet was revered and beloved by his people during life, they are not at all backward about coming forward to squabble over his effects, and in this respect Mormon and Gentile are alike.

In 1852 a family of eight persons were murdered in Brazil, and the house containing the bodies was burned. A rich planter and three of his slaves were tried for the crime, convicted upon purely circumstantial evidence, and executed. A man has just made a death-bed confession, however, in which he asserts that he committed the wholesale slaughter without the aid or knowledge of the parties who were hanged for it.

The cold in Russia has been more severe this winter than in 153 years. In St. Petersburg, on December 30, the thermometer fell to 32 deg. (Reaumur) below zero. Several cabmen were frozen to death on their seats, and cats, pigeons and sparrows were found dead in the street. Large fires were kept burning at night by the police for the benefit of the public. In Moscow the Grand Theater was closed for want of audience, the people being afraid to venture out in the cold.

While Baptist ministers in New York were intently discussing the subtle question, "What Shall be the Form of the Resurrected Body?" and just as Brother Haines had finished an elaborate argument, a cadaverous stranger excitedly jumped up and shouted:—"Friends, I'm a stranger to you [hisses]; but, as regards the resurrection of the body, let me tell you [sensation and more hisses] that those who are righteous shall be righteous till [cries of 'Sit down!'], and those who are filthy shall be filthy still. Good morning!" And the stranger stalked down the aisle and went out.

Disraeli the elder, the father of the present Lord Beaconsfield, and British Premier, is so well know by his "Curiosities of Literature" that he is forgotten as as a poet. But in 1803 John Murray published "Narrative Poems, by D'Israeli." A critic of the day says: "We are indebted for this elegant production to the pen of Mr. D'Israeli, who has before so often, in the various literary shapes of an essayist, and a writer of romance contributed to the public stock of moral instruction and harmless amusement." The romances are nowadays as much forgotten as the poems.

The Parsees are descendants of the ancient Persians who were expelled from Paris by Mohamedan conquerors, and who settled at Surat about eleven hundred years ago. According to the first Indian census, they do not number more than 70,000 souls, of whom about 50,000 are found in the city of Bombay, the remaining 20,000 being in different parts of India, but chiefly in Guzerrt and Bombay Presidency. Though a mere drop in the ocean of 240,000 inhabitants they form a most important and influential body of men, emulating Europeans in energy and enterprise, rivaling them in opulence, and imitating them in many of their habits.

Ayer's

Sarsaparilla

For Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Eruptions and Eruptive diseases of the skin, Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Blotches, Tumors, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine disease, Syphilitic and Mercurial diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, General Debility, and for Purifying the Blood.

This Sarsaparilla is a combination of vegetable alteratives—Stillingia, Mandrake, Yellow Dock—with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most efficacious medicine yet known for the diseases it is intended to cure.

Its ingredients are so skilfully combined that the full alterative effect of each is assured, and while it is so mild as to be harmless even to children, it is still so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

The reputation it enjoys is derived from its cures, and the confidence which prominent physicians all over the country repose in it proves their experience of its usefulness.

Certificates attesting its virtues have accumulated, and are constantly being received, and as many of these cases are publicly known, they furnish convincing evidence of the superiority of this Sarsaparilla over every other alterative medicine. So generally is its superiority to any other medicine known that we need do no more than to assure the public that the best qualities it has ever possessed are strictly maintained.

STATE ITEMS.

The Winston Republican says "Democratic journalism in this state comprises a thousand square miles of dirty printed falsehood."

Mr. Morrison, of Philadelphia, a geologist of fine acquirements, is now investigating the mineral and geological structure of Surry and Stokes.

Jo Turner has been having another meeting in Orange; this time in Patterson township, to protest against Orange not having all the while one of the Senators from the Senatorial district composed of Orange, Caswell and Person counties.—Alamance Gleaner.

They are making from the deposits of the Kittrell Springs in Granville county a soap which heals eruptions of the skin, such as scrofula, ring-worms, tetter, poison oak, scurvy of the gums, erysipelas, &c. They make a nice toilet soap also.

Speaking of the resignation of District Attorney Badger the Raleigh Register says: "It is a source of pleasure to be abble to state that Mr. Badger made an able and popular prosecuting officer. He was always as careful to protect the innocent as he was zealous to in his prosecution of the guilty. He retires with the confidence and esteeem of the people without regard to party.

Ex-Senator Stockton of New Jersey is about to bring suit to recover some valuable land in Union county, bought by his father Commodore Stockton in 1857. It is stated that Mr. Stockton is to visit Monroe in the course of a week or two to give his personal attention to the case. He is the son and grandson of two other Stocktons who have been U. S. Senators from New Jersey.

Mr. N. A. McIntyre, settled upon a plantation in St. Pauls in 1874 which was considered worn out. With nothing but a horse and 150 acres of poor land, with a one horse farm under fence, he went to work, with no one save his wife to assist. The first crop was light, the second better, and last year, we learn, he made over 300 bushels of corn, 150 bushels of potatoes and 30 or 40 bushels of peas. All made with one horse.—Robesonian.

The Asheville Pioneer descants thus pithily on the habits of some of the people in Buncombe county: "If our farmers manifested as much interest in fostering lambs as they do in nurturing mongrel pups, Buncombe would soon head the list of wool-growing counties. There are acres of men in these mountains whose goods and chattels consist of three or four cur dogs and flint lock rifles, who think they have the world in a sling; and they jog on apace to the end of life without sufficient mental expansion to know that they have lived hard, died paupers, gone to the Devil without the aid of Beecher's sermons, and left to their children the miserable inheritance that kept them impoverished."

Seized by a Devil Fish.

Early last August a party of Cape Flattery (or Makaw Indians,) returning from a visit to their friends, the Songish, of Victoria, encamped the first afternoon on the beautiful Bay of Metchosen, V. I. The weather being very fine, most of the party went bathing, and among them a maiden of perhaps eighteen summers, who had accompanied her grandfather on the trip. Desiring seclusion, she went round a point away from the other bathers, and, being known as a bold swimmer, is supposed to have taken a header into deep water. However taken, it proved to have been a plunge into the arms of death, for when the swimmers reassembled around the camp-fire the girl was missed, and, notwithstanding a diligent search that evening, could not be found. The following morning, with sad hearts the party left; but very soon those in the foremost canoe, on rounding the first point, saw (the water being calm and clear) a human body as if seated on the sea bottom, with what seemed like a flour bag immediately behind it. The natives knew what this meant. As soon as the canoes got together, two of the most active young men managed with daggers so to disable the monster (for it was a gigantic devil fish) that the octopus with its victim was brought to the surface. The foregoing facts have been communicated to our informant by an intelligent and respectable half breed woman from Metchosen, who saw the body of the drowned girl with some of the prehensiles of the mollusk still adhering to it. She compared the head of the octopus in size to that of a fifty-pound flour sack, full; and said that the tentacles were twelve in number, of different sizes, and the largest about the circumference of a man's arm.—Victoria Colonist.

Periodic or Intermittent Fevers and Fever and Ague, together with other miasmatic diseases, all have a common malarial origin. No part of the Mississippi Valley is entirely free from them, yet they may be either prevented or cured by the use of Dr. Harter's Fever and Ague Specific and Liver Pills. 2t
